November 2016

A Note From the President

We spoke about the things that we are truly thankful for at the last meeting. Overwhelmingly we are thankful for our families at home and in our businesses. I am no different. I am most thankful for my wonderful son, Josh, and for my work family at ASK. I also cherish my relationships from MABA.

MABA is such a wonderful group of people that never ceases to amaze me with the amount of charitable things that are done. Not just dollars, like in the case of the Joan Smith Memorial Scholarship, but in the many charitable events that time is given. I heard of several members that are volunteering time to help organizations with events to raise awareness and money this holiday season. It is in this spirit that I wish everyone a blessed Thanksgiving and am looking forward to the December meeting and Christmas season.

Sincerely,

Tom Conway

1. The charity basketball game will be held on November 20th at 2:00 at the East Lansing Middle School. More details are on the MABA website under events.

2. Now that the holiday season is upon us, do not leave valuables in plain sight when shopping. This gives thieves a reason to break into your car.
